Motociclo are proud to announce the Australian release of the new full-length DVD documentary

CAFÉ SOCIETY.

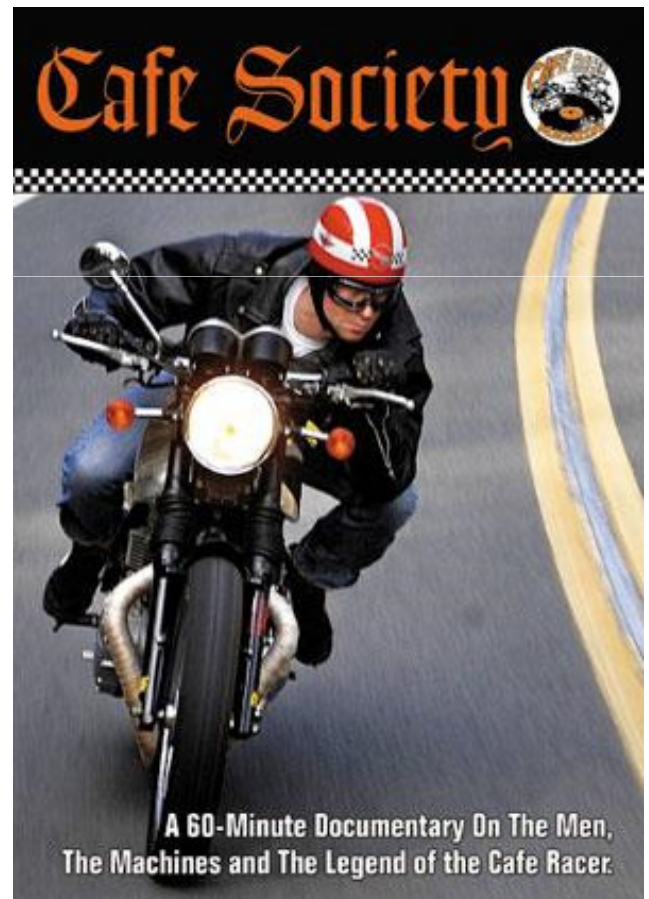

The official Australian launch will be presented by the TON-UP-BOYS motorcycle club at their (13th) annual "Ride with the Rockers" run on Sunday 11th October 2009 (flyer enclosed).

CAFÉ SOCIETY is the first full-length documentary film to chronicle the origins, legacy & rebirth of this, one of the worlds most unique motorcycles & motorcycle subcultures. The documentary pays tribute to the history, legends, and the enduring world wide cult of the Café Racer.

Over 60 minutes of interviews with seminal builders, racers and designers, plus rare, historical footage & eye witness accounts of the Rockers and Ton-Up-Boys themselves. Visit Roker reunions, ride with legendary motorcycle designers & hear personal accounts & experiences from men & women who created the first performance street bikes.

Filmed on location throughout the UK, Europe & U.S by crews from Chet Burks Productions & Mike Seate of Café Racer Magazine, "Café Society" features a rare intimate view of the Ton-Up culture. Filled with never-before-seen historical footage & interviews with Ton-Up Boys & Café Bar cowboys of the 50's & 60's, Café Society takes viewers on one wild unforgettable ride.
